

Paterson, M. and Crumlish, L (2021)
Pastoral Supervision: Creativity in Action*, IPSRP Publications

This new publication

Explores each stage of the supervisory relationship (from first contact to endings and everything in between)

Explores each of the six supervisory processes (hosting and containing through to reviewing and closing) offers ways of bringing each stage & process alive through a range of creative modalities.

There are sections on using

- ✓ art and imagery,
- ✓ sound and music,
- ✓ embodiment and movement,
- ✓ drama and role,
- ✓ language and story.

Woven into the book are poems by Liz Crumlish and graduates from Institute of Pastoral Supervision and Reflective Practice training courses in supervision.

Available in the UK from amazon.co.uk or from michael@ipsrp.org.uk

For those in Australia, the Australian edition is entitled Creativity in Pastoral Supervision and is available from amazon.com.au

