

The calling of the Methodist Church is to respond to the gospel of God's love in Christ and to live out its discipleship in worship and mission. In response to this, in 2016 the young people of the Methodist Church want to focus on:

11-18s

Discussions about same sex marriage.

In particular reflecting on biblical perspectives and exploring the Church's understanding.

Discussions around the issue of war and conflict.

In particular the use of prayer as a response.

Accessibility for those with disabilities.

Change the focus from 'disability' to 'different abilities' and improve access in worship.

Trainning and guidance on dealing with bullying.

For young people and adults.

Refugee and Asylum seekers.

In particular showing them welcome, love and protection.

Hearing the voice; responding with action.
Participation: It's about everyone
